LOWELL THOMAS COLOR FILM ON TIBET SHOWN TO SELL-OUT CROWD; OPC FUND NETS $1,300

The OPC Correspondents Fund netted $1300, after taxes, from the world premiere of the LOWELL THOMAS color film on Tibet, "Out of This World", shown April 14 at the Guild Theater.

VIRGINIA PREWETT MIZELL, chairman of the event, reported a capacity audience on hand and the sale by OPC of 495 tickets. The committee was forced to turn away some 250 late comers seeking seats. Filmed by Past President LOWELL THOMAS and son, Lowell Thomas, Jr., "Out of This World" was the first color motion picture on the court of the God-King of Forbidden Tibet and the sacred city of Lhasa. Viewers last Wednesday night were highly enthusiastic in their praise of both the photographic excellence and the significance of the film.

Preceding the film, a group of OPC'ers turned Thespian for the evening--JOHN DALY, TEX McCRARY, BEN GRAUER and H.V. KALTENBORN--arrayed themselves in Tibetan costumes and produced a skit designed to portray in a colorful, humorous way some of the little-known facts about that mysterious land.

OPC President J. CLIFFORD STARK was MC for the affair and introduced several distinguished guests from overseas including Sir Denys Lawson, formerly Lord Mayor of London; General Revel-Smith of the British Army; Mrs. Augustine Edwards, wife of a leading publisher in Chile; and two Tibetans--Miss Tenki Tenderfla and her cousin, Philip. Miss Tenderfla is the first Tibetan to study in this country. Other guests included Brigadier General Hugh Cox; Bernard A. Grossman (president of the Federal Bar Ass'n); former Assistant Secretary of State Adolf A. Berle; Judge David A. Peck who presides over the Appellate Division of the New York Supreme Court; Huntington Hartford; Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, RAYMOND SWING, and several members of the Explorers Club and the Society of Women Geographers.

Speaking for THOMAS (who was busy setting the stage for the skit), President STARK also relayed brief remarks on Tibet's role in the struggle for Asia. He summed it up this way: "Geographically it is a buffer state between strategic India and the Communist world, a buffer which today has fallen under the Communist shadow. Secondly, it is the spiritual capital of one of Asia's key religions and as such is of vital importance in the war for men's minds."

***** ROME DATELINE--(Special to The Bulletin)-Italian spring attracting * OVERSEAS * many roving newsmen including Marquis Childs of the St. Louis Post-* TICKER... * Dispatch, and his wife. He's just completed extended bout with French ***** politics and is now tackling equally complex Italian situation. From Italy he'll go to the Geneva conference..William Block, Pittsburgh Post Gazette publisher, and wife visiting here. Athens, Munich, Frankfurt and Geneva.....BILL ATTWOOD and cameraman David (Shim) Seymour of Look recently finished three-week tour of duty in Rome gathering material for a piece of Mrs. CLARE BOOTH LUCE...Life's Bob Capa was here a while, then headed for Tokyo at invitation of Japanese government.

TEMPLE FIELDING, the travel author, on hand brushing up on his Italian chapters. His travel tome revisions have already run into 50,000 words and he still hasn't work his way down to Italy's heel..

Roman residents George Weller of Chicago Daily News and his correspondent-wife, Charlotte, are back from a Mediterranean cruise and a round of adventure in the Middle East. One highlight: Charlotte joined hunger strike being staged in Egypt by suffragettes there but her visa expired before she did. With her out of the way, General Naguib (or maybe it was Colonel Nasser) had the starving women impounded in a hospital.
 Presumably the Egyptians were reluctant to use forced feeding on a female foreign correspondent. Anyway, Charlotte feels it improved her figure. Her idea, incidentally, wasn't primarily to advance the cause of women's suffrage there, but to gather material for a book she's working on, although she does believe in the gals' right to the ballot boxes. (By EDMUND STEVENS).
